6.1.3.1 A team of 13 players will be selected.

6.1.3.2 Five additional players will be named as reserves in alphabetical order.

6.1.3.3 Unavailability to attend all Queensland team training will not preclude a player from Queensland team selection.

6.1.4 Announcement of the Queensland team

6.1.4.1 The selectors must submit the final team to the executive of the association for ratification prior to the announcement.

6.1.4.2 The executive will announce the Queensland team and reserves to team officials if requested prior to the general announcement on the understanding that the selections are not to be made public.

6.1.4.3 The Queensland team and reserves will be announced in alphabetical order at the close ceremony.

6.2 Selection Policy Guidelines

6.2.1 Criteria for the selection of Queensland teams and development teams

6.2.1.1 The major criterion for selection will be the performance of the player at the state championships. Areas of performance considered should include:

- The skills level exhibited by the player
- The performance of the players as a member of the team
- The attitude and behaviour of the player in and out of the pool

6.2.1.2 A player who is ill or injured at the time of the Queensland Championships may be considered for selection provided that a medical certificate is supplied (QSS By-law).

6.2.1.3 A player who is representing the Australian or Queensland Water Polo Association at a higher-level competition at the time of the Queensland schools championships may be considered for selection (QSS By-law).

6.2.2 Selection procedures

6.2.2.1 The selectors must meet on a regular basis on each day of the competition.

6.2.2.2 The selectors must meet with the coaches of competing teams to give the coaches the opportunity to put forward names of and comment on the players considered worthy of the standards necessary for selection of a player in a Queensland team.

6.2.2.3 Team coaches may submit a written report to the selectors.

6.2.2.4 At least one member of the selection panel must be present at each game.

6.2.2.5 The selectors should maintain a written report of each game viewed for selection purposes.

6.2.2.6 Minutes of all selector meetings shall be kept and made available to QSSU staff upon request.

6.2.2.7 Team officials must ensure that players always wear the same cap number as shown in the official program subject to corrections made at the preliminary conference.
